

Single Moms

Bringing hope to single moms and their children

There are children in our communities who live with daily challenges and change. They have mothers who deeply love them and want the best for them, but aren't always able to provide for every need. At One More Child, we serve these moms and their children as they work diligently on a path towards self-sufficiency and rediscovering who God created them to be. Some of these women have experienced financial hardship while also navigating challenging behaviors and working to build secure attachments with their children. Our mission is to offer support, stability, and encouragement as they work toward building family resilience, providing their families with a future filled with hope and possibility.

Single Moms Residential Program

Single moms, age 18 and older, work to set goals with the guidance of dedicated and knowledgeable staff, while living in a comfortable residential setting with their children for approximately 12 months. Through our program, we:

- Provide housing in safe, secure locations
- Enlist Godly women to serve as mentors
- Provide assistance to moms as they continue or complete their education
- Help them develop budgets and save money that will allow them to graduate the program with more stability
- Connect them with local churches
- Teach them essential skills for future success

Help a Single Mom and Her children

We are always looking for people to help us show love and speak truth into the lives of the mothers we serve. Ways you can make an impact for single moms include:

- Become a mentor
- Make a financial gift
- Provide resources or homes to help us expand our ministry
- Volunteer as a childcare worker
- Prepare and deliver meals
- Teach an essential life skills class
- Lead a devotional at a life skills class
- Launch a Single Moms Community Program to provide wraparound support to single mothers and their children in your community. Learn more at onemorechild.org/singlemoms.

Single Moms Community Program

Encourage and serve single moms and their children

Many single moms work tirelessly to provide a stable life for their families, yet sometimes despite their best efforts, some find themselves on the brink of crisis. Serving single moms in need is something we are passionate about, and One More Child's Single Moms Community Program provides an opportunity to help mothers facing hardship rewrite their stories of struggle into testimonies of triumph.

What is Single Moms Community Program?

A 10-week program designed to assist single moms on their journey to self-sufficiency. Through specialized curriculum and resources, single moms develop essential skills in parenting, finance, and spiritual growth.

How it works

The Single Moms Community Program is led by a team of volunteers who have a heart for helping, encouraging, and uplifting God's people. This team facilitates the 10-week program providing much-needed support to single moms and their children in your community.

We have resources to help

Each partner receives training and instruction from expert One More Child staff and is equipped with a curriculum guide and a launch kit to help facilitate discussion and engagement with participants.
